SPECIAL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TEACHER COMPLIANCE

The Department of Education requires that all non-employees who are permitted to teach Special Religious Education (SRE) in its schools be appropriate and responsible persons. Each authorised religious persuasion must give an undertaking that any SRE teacher authorised to enter NSW Government schools has not had a criminal conviction for any crime against a minor, a conviction for violence, sexual assault or for providing prohibited drugs.

In keeping with current child protection legislation all SRE teachers are required to apply for a Working with Children Check (WWCC) and obtain a clearance number. The number and date of birth must be provided to the approved provider for verification. In response to the above requirements, all SRE teachers must sign the following declaration:

I have:

- Applied for a WWCC and obtained a clearance and received a WWCC number and expiry date.
- Provided the WWCC clearance number, expiry date and date of birth to my approved provider.
- Never been convicted for violence, sexual assault or any crime against a minor
- Never been convicted for providing prohibited drugs.

I understand that if, after signing this declaration, I am later convicted on any matters related to the above offences, I am no longer authorised to enter NSW Government schools
